LIBRARY OBJECTIVES

The general library objectives of the Norridgewock Public Library shall be:

1. To collect, preserve and organize for circulation or reserve, books and related educational and recreational material in order to promote an enlightened citizenry and enriched personal lives in the community.
2. To serve the community and its surrounding areas as a center of reliable information.
3. To provide a repository for materials related to the history of our town and its inhabitants.
4. To support educational, civic, and cultural activities of groups and organizations.
5. To provide opportunity and encouragement for children, young people, men and women to educate themselves continuously.
6. To seek continually to identify community needs and support educational, civic and cultural programs related to these.

To provide opportunity for recreation through the use of literature, music and other art forms.

PATRON CODE OF CONDUCT

If a patron is creating a disturbance or causing problems in the Library, the library staff has the authority or right to tell that patron to leave the library. If that patron refuses to comply and continues to cause problems, the police can then be contacted to eject that patron from the library.

1. Patrons are expected to behave in a manner appropriate to a library; speak quietly and keep noise and disruption to a minimum.
2. Proper attire is expected; shirt and shoes are required.
3. Cell phones must be set to vibrate or be turned off. Cell phone calls are prohibited and must only be used outside the building.
4. Smoking, food and drink are not permitted in the library.
5. Physical abuse, assault on another person, or the use of abusive, insulting or threatening language to a person in the building shall be cause for removal of the offending party or parties.
6. Persons intoxicated from alcohol or other drugs will be advised to leave the premises.
7. Improper or illegal acts are prohibited.
8. Guide dogs for the physically disabled are admitted but other animals or pets must remain outside the building.
9. Children younger than 10 years of age must be accompanied by an adult at all times. An effort will be made to contact the parents of unattended children. Children who are causing a disturbance will be dealt with as the need arises. Children remaining on the premises after closing time will be reported to the authorities.

PROBLEM PATRONS

All library patrons are expected to conform to the rules listed below. Persons violating these rules may be instructed by a person in authority to leave the building. Failure to leave as instructed constitutes trespassing.

1. Disorderly conduct is prohibited.
2. Physical abuse, assault on another person, or the use of abusive, insulting or threatening language to a person in the building shall be cause for removal of the offending party or parties.
3. Persons intoxicated from alcohol or other drugs will be advised to leave the premises.
4. Improper acts, which are subjected to prosecution under criminal or civil codes of law, are prohibited.
5. Smoking, food and drink are not permitted in the library.
6. Guide dogs for the physically disabled are admitted but other animals or pets are to remain outside the building.
7. Children younger than 10 years of age must be accompanied by an adult at all times. An effort will be made to contact the parents of unattended children. Children who are causing a disturbance will be dealt with as the need arises. Children remaining on the premises after closing time will be reported to the County Juvenile Officer.

Anyone known to have violated any of the above rules or anyone known to have habitually violated the law may be excluded from the library as a matter of administrative policy. The Maine State Police will be contacted in severe instances.

PATRON CONDUCT ORDINANCE

The Norridgewock Public Library is dedicated to providing access to knowledge and information through reading, writing, and quiet contemplation, providing patrons the right to use materials and services without being disturbed or impeded, and providing patrons and employees a secure and comfortable environment. The Public Library Act provides the Board of Library Trustees with the general power to carry out the spirit and intent of the Act in establishing and maintaining the library and providing library services. The Act also provides the specific power to “exclude from the use of the library any person who willfully violates an ordinance or regulation prescribed.”

The Board of Library Trustees of the Norridgewock Public Library establishes its conduct ordinance as follows:

- Section 1. A patron who engages in any activity that materially disrupts the use of library facilities, collections, or services by patrons or materially disrupts the ability of the staff to perform its duties shall cease such activity immediately upon request by library personnel.
- Section 2. In such instances involving minors, identification will be requested and the incident may be reported to the parent or guardian.
- Section 3. If, following a request, the patron fails or refuses to comply or responds to the request in an abusive fashion, he or she will be required to leave the library premises immediately for the balance of that calendar day. If he or she fails to leave, the police will be summoned.
- Section 4. Library personnel will record instances in which patrons are required to leave the library in a ledger maintained by the library for that purpose. Upon the 2nd recorded instance in which a patron is required to leave the library premises within a thirty-day period, the Director shall bar the patron from use of library premises for a period of thirty days. Parents or guardians of minors will be notified in writing after the 2nd recorded instance in which a minor is required to leave the library and advised of the consequences of any further recorded instances.
- Section 5. Parents wishing to appeal such action may do so upon written request to the Board of Library Trustees.
- Section 6. In the event a patron barred from the use of the library attempts entry to the library during any such period of exclusion, the police will be summoned and informed of the prior action.
- Section 7. In the event the patron persists in abusive conduct or disruptive behavior following such a period of exclusion, the Director shall report to the Board of Library Trustees such conduct following prior exclusion and the Board will consider a long-term exclusion of that patron.
- Section 8. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon enactment and approval according to law and be in full force and effect thereafter. A copy shall be posted within three days of enactment at the library and the secretary shall maintain a certified copy in the official records of the library available for public inspection.

UNATTENDED AND DISRUPTIVE CHILDREN POLICY

Parents are responsible for the behavior of their children while they are in the Library. The Norridgewock Public Library staff is committed to help children with activities related to the Library. However, Library staff cannot, nor is it their responsibility to serve as baby-sitters, teachers, or disciplinarians. Violations of this policy are grounds for suspension of library privileges. Whenever advisable, the Library will notify the parent of incidents involving an unattended or disruptive child. [Form follows.]

Children under the age of 10 must be accompanied and directly supervised at all times by a parent or other responsible caregiver. When the safety of an unattended child is in doubt, or the parent or responsible caregiver cannot be located, or if the Library is closing, library staff is authorized to call the police and stay with the child until the police arrive. Attempts will be made to reach parents, but in no instance will staff take young people home

From time to time, the Norridgewock Public Library schedules or provides programs that are designed and suitable for attendance by children without parental supervision. Such program announcements will so indicate, and if no indication is included, then supervision is required. When so indicated, if the parent or caregiver intends to be absent, they must leave word at the circulation desk as to their whereabouts and, if possible, a phone number where they or a responsible adult can be contacted.

Children over the age of 10 may use the Library unattended by an adult, subject to other Library rules and policies concerning behavior, conduct, and demeanor.

Disruptive behavior is any behavior on library premises that infringes on the rights of others using the library as referenced in the Patron Code of Conduct. In order to assure an environment conducive to reading and viewing and to promote an atmosphere in which lifelong learning and personal development can occur, disruptive children will not be allowed to interfere with library service to others. Library staff will approach disruptive children in the following manner:

Give a verbal warning to the child indicating that such behavior is disruptive to other library users and is unacceptable.

If the disruptive behavior continues, approach the parent or guardian with the same warning. If the child is unattended, give the child a second warning.

If the disruptive behavior still continues, request the parent or guardian to escort the child from the library premises. If the child is unattended, staff should use discretion in asking the child to leave taking into consideration the child's safety.

If the child's disruptive behavior continues and he or she refuses to leave the library premises, library staff will call the police dispatcher.

Library staff will document any incidents involving unattended or disruptive children and inform their supervisor. In all instances, the staff member in charge must be informed before appropriate action is taken.

UNATTENDED OR DISRUPTIVE CHILDREN PARENTAL NOTIFICATION LETTER

Dear _____,

The _____ Library has recently experienced an incident involving your child, _____
_____, where they were:
_____ on Library grounds unattended by you or a responsible caregiver.
_____ behaving in a manner disruptive to library services.

A copy of the Library's policy on Unattended or Disruptive Children is enclosed here for your attention. We ask that you review this policy and make every effort to follow it. We do not wish to suspend Library privileges for you or your family, but the safety of children as well as the proper operation of the Library is our first responsibility. If you have any questions regarding this policy or its enforcement, please contact the undersigned.

Very Truly Yours,

_____
Board President or Librarian

NORRIDGEWOCK PUBLIC LIBRARY PERSONNEL

The Norridgewock Public Library follows the personnel policies of the Town of Norridgewock.

LIBRARIAN

The head librarian will be selected by Town of Norridgewock Town Manager with input from the Library Board of Trustees, with due regards for established professional qualifications for library background and general education.

The Librarian answers to the Town Manager.

The librarian will be responsible for the administration of the library staff and programs.

STAFF / VOLUNTEERS

The first duty of the library staff/volunteer(s) is to serve the public. Every patron is entitled to prompt, efficient, friendly, courteous service.

Staff members/volunteer(s) are encouraged to read widely in both current affairs and literature. Outside interests and contacts of staff members/volunteer(s) provide valuable communication between the community and the library and should be encouraged.

All professional staff members /volunteers should keep in touch with current trends in the profession through professional reading, association membership and attendance at conferences, institutes, workshops, etc. subject to approval by the Town Manager.

NORRIDGEWOCK PUBLIC LIBRARY SERVICES

FACILITY HOURS OF OPERATION

The Norridgewock Public Library maintains consistent, posted hours of service during which all services of the Norridgewock Public Library are available to patrons. Those hours are:

|           |                        |
|-----------|------------------------|
| Monday    | Closed                 |
| Tuesday   | 10:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. |
| Wednesday | Closed                 |
| Thursday  | 10:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. |
| Friday    | Closed                 |
| Saturday  | 10:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. |
| Sunday    | Closed                 |

The book drop is available for the return of all material during the hours the library is closed. The book drop is located at the front door of both buildings.

The library may close occasionally due to Holidays, training or inclement weather conditions.

CIRCULATION AND BORROWING PRIVILEGES

REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

The Norridgewock Public Library is a tax-supported public library. This means that people residing within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Town of Norridgewock pay taxes to support the library. Those people who live within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Town of Norridgewock or are non-residents paying taxes to the Town of Norridgewock, need pay no fee to be eligible to receive their first library card. Library cards are renewed every 5 years without additional fees, provided the library card holder continues to reside within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Norridgewock Public Library and is a patron in good standing. There is a fee of $3 to replace damaged, destroyed, lost, or stolen library cards. Proof of Norridgewock residency is required as follows: Librarian personal knowledge, Town Office verification, copy of tax bill or utility bill.

As a resident card holder, the borrower identified on the valid borrower's card may physically take his or her library card to another library to borrow materials. Those materials are the responsibility of the individual who borrows them, and are subject to all of the fines, rules, and regulations of the lending library. Individuals residing beyond the jurisdictional boundaries of the Norridgewock Public Library and not within the boundaries of another public library, and owning no property within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Norridgewock Public Library, may purchase a non-resident fee card for the price of $10. This fee entitles the entire family to use the Norridgewock Public Library.

Adults wishing to register for a borrower's card must fill out an initial application. When receiving a first time borrowers card, renew an expired borrower's card, or replace a lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed borrower's card at the Norridgewock Public Library must bring with them two forms of identification, at least one of which bears their name and address. These forms of identification include, but are not limited to, driver's license, utility bills, mail, or voter's registration card.

Children under the age of 18 must have a parent's or guardian's signature on any initial application for a borrower's card. The application must be completed with both the child and adult present in the library. Children under the age of 16 may use the proof of residency provided by their parent or guardian. Children 16 and over may choose to provide their own proof of residency, or use that of their parent or guardian.

ELIGIBILITY TO BORROW

Individuals presenting valid borrower's cards issued by the Norridgewock Public Library are eligible to borrow materials from the Norridgewock Public Library when the following conditions are met:

1. No materials which are more than one circulation period are overdue on their card.
2. No outstanding fines in aggregate excess of $5 have accrued to their card.
3. No materials borrowed for them from another library are overdue in any amount. A Notice will be sent to offender that the book/materials must be replaced before borrowing privileges are restored.

The library staff may not waive these regulations without the specific permission and approval from the Board of Selectmen. However, the patron may request and receive a 24-hour hold on the item(s) he or she wishes to check out to allow the patron time to correct the situation which has resulted in loss of eligibility to borrow.

REFERENCE SERVICES

The Norridgewock Public Library serves a diverse public with unique individual needs and levels of ability to conduct research independently. At times of peak activity within the library, it is mandatory that rules for providing reference assistance be established.

The Board of Trustees of Norridgewock Public Library encourage staff of all levels to pursue continuing education opportunities which will enable them to better meet the needs of the library's patrons. All staff members receive in-house training regarding appropriate responses to patron questions, including reference questions. This training includes reference interviewing techniques, reader's advisory service, and bibliographic instruction. All staff members are taught to treat each question asked with respect insofar as the level of assistance required and the topic of the question. Names of users and the transactions that occur between users and the staff are confidential and not discussed outside a professional context.

Reference service and materials are available to all regardless of the age, race, sex, social, or economic status of the patron. Reference service and materials are available during all hours the library is open and are provided in response to all forms of inquiry including but not limited to patrons in the library, the telephone, email, and TTY. The reference questions of patrons visiting the library are given the highest priority. All requests for information receive an answer or status report within one working day. Questions that cannot be answered with onsite resources are referred to another agency. Such referrals are verified and/or mediated by library staff.

In the instance of legal, medical, investment, or tax reference questions, the staff may only guide the patron to the material available on the topic of interest. The staff may not evaluate or interpret the information provided nor may the staff define the meaning of terms, offer investment advice, select income tax forms, or serve as a surrogate for a professional in any of the fields listed above. If all materials within the library are beyond the understanding of the patron, the patron will be advised to consult with their professional from the above listed fields for additional information or advice.

Reference materials regardless of format may not be removed from the library.

TELEPHONE REFERENCE SERVICE

The library provides telephone reference service during the hours of library operation. Priority attention is given to patrons who are in the building and needing assistance. If possible, all information inquiries are handled on a first come-first served basis. If the library staff cannot provide immediate help, patrons wanting service will be contacted as soon as possible.

PHOTOCOPY SERVICE

The library provides a photocopier machine for the patron's convenience and to protect the library collection. Copyright laws are to be followed by all patrons making photocopies. The library has no responsibility for personal violations of copyright law. Photocopies are subject to a fee defined by the "Fees & Fines" section.

PUBLIC ACCESS TO ELECTRONIC INFORMATION NETWORKS

Libraries make it possible for citizens to have access to the information they need to make informed decisions. The Norridgewock Public Library is committed to networking, which represents good public policy by maximizing the use of the resources of all types of libraries. Every library user benefits from expanded access to information beyond the four walls of a single library building.

The Norridgewock Public Library uses electronic information networks such as the Internet for a variety of purposes:

1. Access to shared automation systems that provide bibliographic access to the collections of the local library and libraries in the region and across the state.
2. Access to the wealth of information resources available via the Internet.
3. Access to general and specialized shared licensed databases available to member libraries through regional and statewide cooperative programs.

Most resources available via the Internet and other electronic information networks are “global” resources rather than “local” resources. The library does not and cannot control the information content available through global resources such as information obtained from outside sources via the Internet.

Internet resources enhance and supplement resources that are available locally within a library. Library users must be aware that this library does not exercise control over information obtained via the Internet and must keep in mind the following points when evaluating information obtained via the Internet:

1. Information obtained via the Internet may or may not be reliable and may or may not be obtained from a reliable source.
2. Information obtained via the Internet may or may not be accurate.
3. Information obtained via the Internet may or may not be current and up to date.
4. Links to information on the Internet may not always be valid, and particular information sites on the Internet may sometimes be unavailable, and this unavailability often occurs unpredictably.
5. Certain information obtained via the Internet may be considered controversial by some library patrons.

The Norridgewock Public Library urges library patrons to be informed consumers and carefully evaluate information obtained via the Internet. Library staff may be available to assist patrons in making judgments about the reliability or currency of certain types of Internet information sources, but are unable to provide definitive analysis of particular sources due to the extremely large variety and volume of information available via the Internet.

This library is not responsible for damages, indirect or direct, arising from a library patron’s use of Internet information resources.

EQUIPMENT AND COMPUTER USE POLICY

The Library reserves the right to limit, refuse, and/or ban any patron from using library equipment and computers. Use is limited to patrons in good standing, i.e., all fines have been paid, all overdue materials have been returned, any lost materials have been paid for, and the patron has a current library card.

Persons under the age of 10 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian while using library equipment or computers. Reservations for equipment or computer use can be made at the circulation desk, and without them usage is on a "first come, first served" basis. However, all patrons shall log in at the circulation desk prior to use to avoid conflicts with reserved times. If a user has not logged in at the circulation desk, that user will be required to give up the usage if a patron who has logged in or made a reservation is waiting.

In addition, these rules apply for library computer (non-Internet) use:

1. Usage is limited to 1 hour blocks; however, the patron may continue to use the computer in 15-minute intervals until another patron wishes to use it.
2. If a patron is more than 15 minutes late for a reserved time, the computer becomes open. If a patron is less than 15 minutes late, the allocated time will not be extended to reflect the tardiness.
3. Copyright laws forbid duplication of copyrighted software.
4. The Library may restrict the use of personal software on library computers. Library software shall not be copied and must be returned to the circulation desk before use of another software product.
5. A content filter is used to prevent the viewing of materials deemed obscene, child pornography, or otherwise harmful to minors. Adults using the library's computer resources may request to bypass the filter on a per-session basis.

There is a charge of $.25 per black and white page of printing from a library computer; $.50 per color page.

LIBRARY PROCEDURES RELATING TO ELECTRONIC NETWORKS

This library has developed certain procedures to assist staff and patrons in the use of electronic information resources. These procedures include (but are not necessarily limited to) the following:

1. Time limits for access to allow use of resources by the maximum number of library patrons,
2. Cost recovery for printouts using the library's computer equipment,
3. Priority usage for accessing the library's online catalog,
4. Specific instructions for downloading including compliance with virus protection measures,
5. Restrictions on the use of personal software on library computer equipment,
6. Electronic Information Networks Registration and User Agreement must be completed prior to usage.

Violation of any aspect of this policy may result in the loss of library privileges.

USE OF EQUIPMENT AND NETWORKS

The Norridgewock Public Library requires that library patrons using electronic information networks such as the Internet do so within the guidelines of acceptable use. The following activities are unacceptable:

1. Use of electronic information networks for any purpose that result in the harassment of others,
2. Destruction of, damage to, or unauthorized alteration of the library's computer equipment software or network security procedures,
3. Use of electronic information networks in any way that violates a Federal or State law,

4. Use of electronic information networks in any way that violates licensing and payment agreements between this library and network / database providers,
5. Unauthorized duplication of copy-protected software or violation of software license agreements,
6. Violation of system security, unauthorized access such as hacking, or other illegal purposes.
7. Behaving in a manner that is disruptive to other users, including but not limited to overuse of computer equipment that serves to deny access to other users.
8. The unauthorized disclosure, use or dissemination of a minor's personal information.

CHILDREN'S ACCESS TO ELECTRONIC INFORMATION NETWORKS

The Norridgewock Public Library supports the right of all library users to access information and will not deny access to electronic information networks based solely on age.

This library recognizes that the electronic information networks such as the Internet may contain material that is inappropriate for children. Parents or legal guardians of minors are responsible for their safety and security when using email, chat, social media or any other form of direct electronic communication through the library's computer resources. Library staff is unable to monitor children's use. Parents are encouraged to discuss with their children issues of appropriate use and electronic information network safety.

PATRON ASSISTANCE AND INSTRUCTION

The Norridgewock Public Library's staff may provide assistance to patrons in the use of electronic information networks as time and staff knowledge permits. Printed and online documentation and instructions are available at or near points of service. Formal instruction in particular aspects of electronic information network use may be available.

FEES AND FINES

The Norridgewock Public Library has an established, in addition to the schedule for lost or damaged items, the following schedule of fines for overdue materials as well as fees for other services provided by the Norridgewock Public Library. All prices are set by the Board of Selectmen and are subject to change.

OVERDUE MATERIALS AND FINES

Books and all other materials: $.05 per day, not to exceed the cost of the item.

Patrons with responsibility for material in any format which is more than 15 days overdue are also responsible for any and all collection and/or court costs incurred by the library in its efforts to secure the return of the material.

FEES

Copies: $.25 per page for black and white copies. If enlargement or reduction is required by the patron, the per page fee applies to each step in that process. Enlargement and reduction is not an exact science and may take several pages.

Copies: $.50 per page for color copies. If enlargement or reduction is required by the patron, the per page fee applies to each step in that process. Enlargement and reduction is not an exact science and may take several pages.

Fax/transmission: $.25 per page. Faxes are sent only within the continental United States. The cover sheet is excluded from the per page fee if the fax (including cover sheet) is more than one page in length.

Fax/receipt: $.25 per page. The Library assumes no responsibility of notification of the receipt of a fax for an individual. The fax will be held by the library for one week and then discarded if not picked up. No effort to notify the individual of the arrival of the fax will be made.

Computer printouts: $.25 per page for black and white copies; $.50 per page for color copies. This fee applies to all material printed by library printers

LENGTH OF LOANS

The Norridgewock Public Library circulates materials in a variety of formats including books, magazines, books on cassette, and CD-ROM. The following terms of loan are applicable as indicated:

|                           | Reserves | Length of Loan | # allowed | Renewals |
|---------------------------|----------|----------------|-----------|----------|
| Books & Books on Cassette |          | 2 weeks        |           | 2        |
| Magazines & Reference     |          | 2 weeks        |           | 2        |
| Videocassettes/DVD/CD-Rom |          | 2 weeks        |           | 2        |
| New Purchases             |          |                |           |          |
| 1 st Book      |          | 1 week         | 2         |          |
| 2 nd Book      |          | 2 weeks        |           |          |

SERVICE TO PATRONS WITH DISABILITIES

The Norridgewock Public Library offers the same services to patrons with disabilities as to all other segments of the population. In addition to those services, the Norridgewock Public Library acts as facilitator between the patron and Services to the Blind and Physically Handicapped, and welcomes service animals in the library.

LOST AND/OR DAMAGED MATERIALS

Materials borrowed via any mechanism are the responsibility of the library patron. Replacement cost (not original purchase price) is the responsibility of any patron who borrows and loses any library material. In the case of children under the age of 18, it is the parents' responsibility to pay for lost or damaged items in accordance with the following schedule of terms:

1. Retail replacement cost of any item which is lost or damaged beyond repair and for which a current price can be found plus a reprocessing fee of $5.
2. Average replacement cost for any item which is lost or damaged beyond repair and for which a current price cannot be found plus a reprocessing fee of $5. Materials borrowed through interlibrary loan which are lost or damaged are charged to the patron according to the bill provided by the lending agency.
  1. Bindery repair, $5.
  2. Minor repair (in-house), $2.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN

When patrons want material that is not available within the Norridgewock Public Library, we may ask other agencies to provide it. This is the process of interlibrary loan. Materials borrowed through interlibrary loan have a circulation period determined by the lending library, not the Norridgewock Public Library. We are happy to borrow materials from other libraries for you, but we ask that you respect the date by which those materials must be returned to their home libraries. When the Norridgewock Public Library is lax in returning materials borrowed through interlibrary loan, the library can lose the privilege of borrowing materials in that way for any of its patrons. It is crucial that materials borrowed through interlibrary loan be returned in a timely manner. Habitual failure to do so may result in individual loss of the privilege in order to preserve the privilege for other library patrons.

Interlibrary loans may be subject to delivery, mailing, replacement and repair costs.

RESERVES

Patrons may reserve materials which are not immediately available for patron use, but are in the collection of the Norridgewock Public Library. When the reserved materials are available to the patron who has placed the reserve, the library will notify the patron via phone or email. The specific title of the material will not be stated to anyone other than the library patron who placed the reserve. If the patron is not available by phone, a message will be left. The date of the message will be noted and the material will be held for the patron for a period of one week. If additional patrons are waiting for the material, the next patron on the list will be called and notified of the availability of the item, and the same procedure will be followed. If no additional patrons are waiting for the material, the material will be placed back into general circulation. In no circumstance will the library leave more than one message regarding a hold on a specific item. Relay of the message to the appropriate person in the household, and prompt retrieval of the material, are the responsibilities of the patron.

EMERGENCY SITUATIONS

FIRE

In the event of a fire, library staff will sound the fire alarm, report the fire to the Fire Department and assist in evacuating the building.

MEDICAL EMERGENCIES

In the event of an ill/injured patron, library staff will respond positively with any reasonable help. If the ill/injured person is unable to make calls, the library staff will assist in notifying a relative or call an ambulance if necessary.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS

The Norridgewock Public Library abides by several acts which state that the records of patron transactions and the identity of registered library patrons is confidential material. The Norridgewock Public Library does not make available the records of patron transactions to any party except in compliance with the law. The Norridgewock Public Library does not make available lists of registered library patrons except in compliance with the law.

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

The _____ Library abides by the Texas Open Records Act (Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, article 6252-17a) which states that the records of patron transactions and the identity of registered library patrons is confidential material. The Norridge Public Library does not make available the records of patron transactions to any party except in compliance with the law. The Norridgewock Free Public Library does not make available lists of registered patrons except in compliance with the law.

PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING PATRON CONFIDENTIALITY PATRON REQUESTS:

A patron must present either their barcode number or their patron ID number, either in person or on the telephone, before any information will be given concerning:

- A. Items charged out
- B. Items overdue
- C. Fine information
- D. Hold information (either items on hold or those awaiting collection)

When speaking to a family member and not to the patron, information about the material should be restricted to information that does not reveal the content.

Sample:

1. A videocassette borrowed is overdue and should be returned.
2. A book that had been reserved is now in and can be picked up.

If a person other than the patron requests information, staff will state that they are only permitted to discuss specific information with the patron.

PATRON PERSONAL INFORMATION:

Address, phone numbers, or any other personal information from a patron's record may not be given out without direct consent of the Library Director.

DONATIONS, GIFTS AND MEMORIALS

GENERAL

The Norridgewock Public Library is grateful for gifts, and its collection has been enriched by donations of materials as well as by contributions. Through donors, the library has been able to acquire materials which could not have been purchased otherwise. The library staff can supply, upon request, a list of needed materials for consideration by the donor.

All donations, etc. are subject to Board of Selectmen approval.

DONATION OF BOOKS AND AUDIO VISUAL MATERIALS

In accepting a gift of materials, the library reserves the privilege of deciding whether items donated should be added to the collection. Out of the many books and other materials which citizens so generously give, a considerable proportion can be used. Some materials cannot be used because any library material, though of value in itself, may be: (1) a duplicate of an item of which the library already has a sufficient number; (2) outdated--interesting but not of sufficient present reference or circulating value to the library; and/or (3) in poor condition--which would not justify the expense of processing it, i.e. cataloging and preparing it for circulation. The material will be judged by the same standards of selection as those applied to the purchase of new materials. The Norridgewock Public Library accepts gift books with the understanding that books which are useful to the library collection will be retained and other books disposed of in whatever manner the librarian deems best. The Library necessarily reserves the right to interfile gifts with other collections on the same subject, so that all collections are organized and classified according to library standards for the best public service.

GIFT BOOK PROGRAM

The Library welcomes monetary contributions specifically for book purchases in memorial to or in honor of named individuals. In order that the Library can properly honor the generosity, a special form to record the information is used and should be completed.

DONATION OF ART OBJECTS AND OTHER TYPES OF MATERIALS

Although such gifts are usually welcomed and valued, final decision on their acceptance rests with the Librarian, the Town Manager and the Library Board of Trustees.

DONATIONS—OTHERS, E.G. MONETARY

The Library welcomes cash contributions, gifts of real property, stocks, and bonds. It is our custom to expend cash gifts on materials, equipment, or a project which is acceptable to the donor. Although it is unlikely, there may be an occasion in which the restrictions set by the donor make it impossible for the library to accept the contribution.

RECOGNITION OF GIFTS

For memorial books to the library, the library may place within the book the name of the donor, if desired. Accepted gifts will be honored in our gift remembrance book.

USE OF GIFTS

All gifts are accepted with the understanding that it may someday be necessary that they be sold or disposed of in the best interest of the library. The Library cannot commit itself to perpetually housing a donation.

INCOME TAX STATEMENTS

The library cannot appraise the value of a donation of materials or art. It will, however, issue the donor a letter acknowledging the donation. It is the donor's decision whether he or she will determine the value of the donation or utilize an independent appraiser. While the gifts to the Library as a governmental unit qualify as tax deductible, the donor will have to consider the particular circumstances of his or her situation for the specific effect.

FORM

A Gift Agreement Form must be signed by the donor and approved by the Librarian for unrestricted gifts and the Town Manager and the Board of Library Trustees for restricted gifts (see attachments). All gifts are subject to final approval by the Board of Selectmen.

DONATIONS, GIFTS AND MEMORIALS

The library is grateful for gifts and its collection has been enriched by donations of materials as well as by contributions. In accepting a gift of materials, the library reserves the privilege of deciding whether items donated should be added to the collection. Out of the many books and other materials which citizens so generously give, a considerable proportion can be used. Some materials cannot be used because any library material, though of value in itself, may be: (1) a duplicate of an item of which the library already has a sufficient number; (2) outdated--interesting but not of sufficient present reference or circulating value to the library; and/or (3) in poor condition--which would not justify the expense of processing it, i.e. cataloging and preparing it for circulation. The material will be judged by the same standards of selection as those applied to the purchase of new materials. The _____ Library accepts gift materials with the understanding that gifts that are useful to the library collection will be retained and others disposed of in whatever manner the librarian deems best. The Library necessarily reserves the right to interfile gifts with other collections on the same subject, so that all collections are organized and classified according to library standards for the best public service.

MATERIALS RECONSIDERATION PROCEDURES

1. If patrons wish to file a complaint about library materials, Form I, Complaint about Library Materials, should be completed. This form stays on file with the Department Head. The Department Head will examine the material, as well as critical reviews of the material. Repeated complaints about specific works or materials in general will generate a reconsideration of a specific work and/or selection policies.
2. If patrons wish to have materials reconsidered (as opposed to filing a complaint without definite action), they may fill out Form II, Request for Reconsideration of Library Materials.
3. When Form II is completely filled out and returned to the library, the appropriate Department Head will review the complaint and the material to determine whether the item should remain or be removed from the collection. The Librarian should be informed of the complaint and of the decision.
4. The Department Head will write a letter to the patron who initiated the complaint, outlining the above procedures and announcing the disposition of the material in question. The letter may also include a statement inviting the patron to the library to discuss the matter with the Department Head and Librarian.
5. After an interview with the Department Head and Librarian, a patron desiring further action can make a request in writing for a hearing before the Board of Library Trustees, who has final authority.

DISPLAY SPACE

The Norridgewock Public Library maintains bulletin boards and display cases for the exclusive purpose of promoting the services and programs of the library. Although patrons are invited to make suggestions for themes or parallel agency activities, the responsibility for design and placement of all displays rests with the staff of the library.

To meet the objectives of the library as a community resource center, the library offers display space to organizations engaged in educational, cultural, intellectual or charitable activities as space permits.

The following general guidelines apply:

Approval for posting of materials must be obtained from the librarian.

First preference is given to the promotion and display of library events.

Posters and / or other printed materials promoting programs/ projects of a commercial or political nature will not be displayed or distributed.

Notices / posters with printed charges are accepted if sponsored by organizations which can prove a non-profit, tax-exempt status.

Items left without approval will be discarded without notification after 5 days.

Posting of notices does not imply endorsement by the Norridgewock Public Library.

The Library reserves the right to make the final decision as to whether or not a given piece is to be displayed.

EXHIBITS

Occasionally, exhibits from sources within the community may be allowed in the library. All exhibits considered for space within the library must support the mission of the library and not cause disruption of the regular flow of library work and service. Such exhibits can remain in place for four weeks or longer, with set up and removal being the responsibility of the exhibitor. The library assumes no liability for damage or loss relating to any exhibit set-ups for public viewing in the library and will take no extraordinary measures to insure its safety.

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT

PURPOSE OF THE COLLECTION

The purpose of the Norridgewock Public Library materials collection is to provide resources to assist individuals in their pursuit of educational objectives, intellectual and emotional growth, the enjoyment of leisure time and practical solutions to daily problems. The library is responsible to its potential constituency to announce this purpose statement, to evaluate and alter it as the community changes and to increase the opportunity for all potential users of its resources to achieve their purposes through the library.

The library keeps the collection vital and useful by retaining or replacing essential materials, and by removing, on a systematic and continuous basis, those works that are worn, outdated, of little historical significance, or no longer in demand. Materials that are removed from the library collection may or may not be made available for public purchase at book sales.

The Norridgewock Public Library endeavors to build a collection representing varying points of view. The choice of library materials by users is an individual matter. Responsibility for the reading materials of children and adolescents rests with their parents or legal guardians. While a person may reject materials for himself or herself and for his or her children, he or she cannot exercise censorship to restrict access to the materials by others. The library supports intellectual freedom and has adopted the following statements as policy: ALA Freedom to Read Statement, ALA Library Bill of Rights, the "Freedom to View" statement of the American Film and Video Association and the Texas Library Association's Intellectual Freedom Statement.

Requests for reconsideration may be made only by registered patrons, and shall be made in writing and given to the library director for a written response. Appeals are directed to the Board for the final decision.

The Purpose Statement assumes specific definitions for the term "Resources" and for the four categories of activity to which these resources are directed. The term "Resource" includes:

1. Print and non-print materials available within the Norridgewock Public Library.
2. Electronic database sources
3. Resources in other libraries or locations to which the library may achieve access through interlibrary loan or a similar resource sharing process.

These resources respond to four categories of activity:

10. Resources for Education
  - A. Materials that supplement the formal curriculum of primary, secondary and post-secondary schools.
  - B. Materials that support self-education pursued apart from a structured or formal program.
- Resources for Emotional and Intellectual Growth
Materials that satisfy a personal need and relate to self-directed attempts at personal understanding and personal growth. The acquisition of these materials represents a commitment to the improvement of the quality of life of the individual.
  - Resources that Enhance the Enjoyment of Leisure Time
Materials purchased as a source of pleasure and fun for the user. These materials are not purchased as goal-oriented items, and therefore acquisitions decisions may rest more heavily upon the potential pleasure to be derived by the user than the critical appraisal of the materials.
  - Resources that Assist in the Practical Solution of Daily Problems
    - A. Materials that empower the individual to live more independently.
    - B. Materials generally directed at the solution of short-term problems.
    - C. Materials that help individuals save money, improve health, save time, etc.

DEFINITION OF PATRON NEEDS TO BE ADDRESSED BY THE LIBRARY

The library acknowledges that each person has information needs that are important to that individual. It also recognizes that it has limited financial resources to respond to these needs. The library has a responsibility to use public funds in ways that are advantageous to the largest number of its constituents. While the library's materials collection will not deny any need consistent with its mission, the library will nevertheless develop its collections with the recognition that it has the ability to meet certain needs more effectively and efficiently than other needs. It is cognizant of the availability of complementary information-giving institutions in the region and has examined the collections of other public and academic libraries in the area.

SELECTION RESPONSIBILITY

The responsibility for book selection rests with the library, operating within the framework of the policies enunciated herein, and adhering to generally accepted professional practices.

COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright laws of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) govern the reproduction, distribution, adaptation, public performance, and public display of protected material.

Under certain conditions, public libraries are authorized to lend, lease, or rent copies of computer programs and videotapes to patrons for nonprofit purposes. Any person who makes an unauthorized copy or adaptation of a computer program or videotape or redistributes the loaned copy or publicly performs or displays the computer program or videotape, except as permitted by Title 17 of the United States Code, may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to fulfill a loan request if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the request would likely lead to violation of the copyright law.

MATERIALS SELECTION

Selection is the decision to add, retain or delete material as part of the library's resource collection. All materials, whether purchased by the library or donated to it, are evaluated in accordance with these guidelines. Each item is evaluated on its significance as an entire work rather than upon the merit of individual parts. Selection decisions may be made upon one or a combination of guidelines as applicable to the item in question. Guidelines used by the Norridgewock Free Public Library to evaluate materials to be selected for its collection include:

1. The needs of the community.
2. The overall balance of the collection.
3. The spirit of service and the philosophy of the library.
4. The availability of material from other sources.
5. Budgetary limitations.
6. Suitability of the format of the item for library use.
7. Relation to existing collection and other material on the subject.
8. Reputation or significance of the author.
9. Reviews in professional literature or patron request.
10. Accuracy of the item.
11. Appearance in standard bibliographies and indexes
12. In-print availability.
13. Literary merit.
14. Locally produced or authored material.
15. Price.
16. Suitability of reading level, interest level and treatment of subject to the age of the intended audience.
17. Use of the material locally as assigned reading, viewing or listening.

SELECTION TOOLS

Because it is impossible for librarians to examine all items being considered for purchase, they depend on reliable selection aids. The librarians regularly depend on the reviews found in standard sources. Other selection aids, such as "Notable Book" lists chosen by the American Library Association, National Book Awards lists, Pulitzer Prize lists, and published lists of bestsellers may also be used as required.

NON-BOOK MATERIALS

The criteria for and the methods of selection of non-book materials are the same as for books.

Non-book items purchased by the library for in-house use or for circulation may include pamphlets, study prints, art prints, computer software, microfilm, compact discs and cassettes, recordings of books on cassette, cassette/filmstrip and cassette/book kits, games, toys, puzzles, and puppets.

The videotape collection rental fees collected are used for the purchase of new videotapes and maintenance of the videotape collection. The acquisition of a variety of non-book materials is under constant evaluation and is subject to change. Cost of items, budget, use, and availability of new items are the determining factors in selection.

COLLECTION MAINTENANCE

Duplicate Copies

The number of copies purchased varies with the expected use of any item. As extensive use for individual titles is demonstrated, duplication to meet the demand is implemented.

Weeding

In order to maintain the best possible collection of materials, a continual weeding process takes place. Items are discarded if they are outdated, if they no longer circulate, if there are more duplicate copies than needed, or if they are in poor physical condition.

A complete weeding of the entire collection is accomplished every five years. Items discarded are plainly marked and may be donated to the Friends of the Library for sale.

DISPOSAL OF SURPLUS LIBRARY MATERIAL

Library property (print and non-print materials, equipment, supplies and or any personal property) which in the judgment of the Library Director is no longer necessary or useful for library purposes may be disposed of in the following manner:

1. Books and non-print materials from the library's collection or gift materials may be discarded, sold, or, upon the approval of the Norridgewock Free Public Board of Trustees, be given to local philanthropic, educational, cultural, government or other not-for-profit organizations.
2. Any other personal property having an individual current value of less than $100 may, at the discretion of the Library Director, be discarded, turned in on new equipment or made available for sale in accordance with the policies of the Library's governing body.
3. No favoritism shall be shown to library employees, members of the Library Board or members of their immediate families who make bids on or purchase any library item declared surplus.

Revision of Selection Policy

Because the needs of the community change, this materials selection policy is revised as needed and/or is reviewed at least every five years.

PATRON REQUESTS

The library welcomes patron interest in the collection and will seriously consider all requests that specific materials be acquired. The library is under no obligation to fill any particular request if not deemed suitable to the collection. Patron requests will be reviewed using the materials selection criteria listed on page ____ of this document.

Any patron who would like to request a specific item for purchase should fill out a Suggested for Purchase form (see attachments).

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION OF MATERIALS

Strong objection to any library materials must be made in writing according to “Procedures for Handling Complaints about Library Materials” provided in the attachments. Examination and reconsideration of materials, if necessary, will be handled as outlined in these procedures. A copy of these procedures as well as forms for registering complaints may be obtained in the department where the material in question is housed, or in the Administration office.

The Norridgewock Public Library subscribes to the provisions of the Library Bill of Rights and the Freedom to Read Statement as adopted by the American Library Association. These documents are considered a part of this policy. All individuals have the right to choose which library materials they will use. However, no one has the right to restrict the freedom of others to read whatever they wish. No book or other material in question is automatically removed from the collection because of an objection to it.

Lost, Damaged, and Overdue Materials Policy

The Board of Library Trustees is invested under the Public Library Act to provide, by ordinance, fines and penalties for injury to any book or other library material, or to any real or personal property belonging to or in the custody of the library, and for failure to return any book or other material or personal property belonging to or in the custody of the library and to exclude from the use of the library any person who willfully violates the rules prescribed by the Board. The purpose of this policy is to prevent, discourage, and prohibit the injury to any book or library material or property, real or personal, and the failure to return any book or library material or property to the library. Therefore, the policy of the Norridgewock Free Public Library is as follows:

- Section 1: Any person who shall fail to return in undamaged condition any book or library material belonging to or originally borrowed from the custody of the library shall be punished as herein provided:
- A. Adult fines (i.e. where an adult borrower card is used)
    - (a) Books, periodicals, paperbacks, vertical file materials, records, and cassettes - both adult and juvenile - _____ per day, with a maximum fine of $_____;
  - B. Juvenile fines (i.e. where a juvenile borrower card is used)
    - (a) Books, periodicals, paperbacks, vertical file materials, and records from the Children's Room - _____ per day, with a maximum fine of $_____;
    - (b) Books, periodicals, paperbacks, vertical file materials, records, and cassettes from the other departments - with a permission slip - _____ per day, with a maximum fine of $_____;
    - (c) Art prints from the Children's Room - _____ per day with a maximum fine of $_____;
  - C. Fees for lost library cards
    - (a) Adult - $_____ per card for each card;
    - (b) Juvenile - $_____ per card for each card;
  - D. Lost materials
    - (a) Cataloged books, paperbacks, records, cassettes, and art prints - replacement cost plus a $_____ per item service charge;
    - (b) Periodicals - replacement cost plus a $_____ per item service charge;
    - (c) Uncataloged paperbacks - replacement cost, or an exchange of equal or greater value, plus a $_____ per item service charge;
    - (d) Vertical file materials - value, _____ minimum plus a $_____ per item service charge;
  - E. Damaged materials
    - (a) If items are returned in damaged condition, but can be rebound, a bindery fee of $_____ per item will be charged;
    - (b) If items are returned in damaged condition that makes them unusable, value or replacement cost plus service charge will be charged for each item.

Section 2. The term "replacement cost" used in Section 1 above is the price the library must pay to obtain another copy of the item, as listed in Books in Print, Paperbound Books in Print, and such sources. If the particular title is no longer available, the cost is a figure based on the average price of such an item, as listed in Bowker's Annual, so that the library may obtain another title of a similar nature.

Section 3. As to lost materials (Section 1(D) above), the Library will utilize a refund policy on the following terms: cataloged books, paperbacks, records, cassettes, and art prints may be returned within six (6) months for a refund of the value or replacement cost paid subject to the rules relating to damaged materials and fines for overdue material. The service charge of $_____ will not be refunded.

Section 4. In addition to the foregoing, in the event that any person's failure to return any book or library material, in an undamaged condition, is determined to be willful, the Director of the Library shall exclude such person from further use of the library or any privileges attendant thereto until full restitution to the library has been made. For purposes of this section, "willful" is to mean "without good cause."

Section 5. All fines and penalties for the commission of injury upon the library, its grounds, or the property thereof shall be paid into the general fund of the library or the body enforcing this ordinance.

SUGGESTED FOR PURCHASE

The library welcomes patron interest in the collection and will seriously consider all requests that specific materials be acquired. The library is under no obligation to fill any particular request if it is not deemed suitable to the collection based on our Collection Development Policy.

MEETING ROOM POLICIES

Sophie May Library Building: The Norridgewock Public Library has a meeting room at the Sophie May Library Building. The primary purpose of this meeting room is support for library functions, meetings, and programs. The meeting room may, on occasion, be made available for use to members of the public for small group meetings or functions.

Organizations not affiliated with the Norridgewock Public Library may use the meeting room only when all of the following conditions are met:

1. The organization conducting the meeting is not doing so for the immediate or ultimate gain of a for-profit business or agency.
2. There is a $10 fee to help defray operating costs for each and every use.
3. The meeting will not disrupt the ability of the library to conduct its business in a normal and orderly manner.
4. The meeting is open to the public.
5. A resident of the Town of Norridgewock must make the reservation for the meeting room
6. The meeting room must be left in the same clean, orderly fashion in which the organization found it at the beginning of the meeting.
7. The organization assumes all responsibility for setting up and cleaning up the room.
8. All food and beverages are strictly prohibited.
- 9.
10. Smoking and alcoholic beverages are strictly prohibited.

MEETING ROOM POLICY

The Norridgewock Free Public Library: welcomes public use of its meeting facilities. This Meeting Room Policy establishes guidelines and procedures for use of the Library's meeting facilities. The Library Director is responsible for implementing this policy and for maintaining reservation lists.

The public meeting room is for library and public use. Use of the public meeting room by any group signifies acceptance of the terms of this policy.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

The meeting room at the Norridgewock Free Public Library is designed to meet general informational, educational, cultural and civic needs including activities such as discussion groups, panels, lectures, conferences, seminars, exhibits, displays, story times, puppet shows and films.

To be eligible to use the meeting room, any group or organization must be nonprofit and should include three or more individuals.

There is no charge for meeting room use.

Use of the Library's meeting room does not constitute library or town endorsement of viewpoints expressed by participants in the program. Advertisement or announcements implying such endorsements are not permitted.

Solicitation, admission, or other charges, money-raising activities, and/or sales other than library related are not allowed. Instructional fees and honoraria are permitted.

County or library needs may pre-empt any other scheduled event.

Smoking, tobacco use and alcoholic beverages are not allowed.

Approved 2/27/2009

RESERVATIONS

Requests for use of the meeting room may be made in person, by telephone or in writing. Requests will be honored on a first-come, first-served basis.

When making a reservation please provide:

Name of organization

Name, address, and telephone number of the responsible person

Total number of persons expected to attend

Reservations are accepted within each current calendar year (January 1 - December 31). Groups may request multiple reservations during December for the following year.

To provide an opportunity for new groups to use the meeting room, a group may use the meeting room only once each month.

Notice of cancellation should be made as soon as possible. After 30 minutes, a group may forfeit its reservation if it fails to appear as scheduled.

Groups may not assign their reservations to other groups.

The meeting room may not be reserved for social gatherings such as showers, birthday parties, dances, etc. or for religious services.

The individual making the reservation, as well as the membership of the group as a whole, will be held responsible for any and all damages that may occur as a result of the use of the facilities.

Permission to use the meeting room may be withheld from groups failing to comply with the Meeting Room Policy and from any group that damages the room, carpet, equipment or furniture, or causes a disturbance.

CARE AND USE OF FACILITIES

Please leave the meeting room as it is found. If the furniture is rearranged, it should be returned to the original arrangement at the end of the meeting.

Furniture and /or equipment from the main area of the library may not be brought into the meeting room.

Personal furniture or equipment may be provided by a group with prior approval. Arrangements for the use of any personal furniture or equipment should be made at scheduling time. In order to ensure easy removal of equipment after the meeting, the Library Director should be notified when the equipment is brought into the building.

Any function which creates audible disruption to normal library operations will not be tolerated.

Equipment, supplies or personal effects cannot be stored or left in the meeting room before or after use.

Keep all exits unlocked at all times. Open aisles must be maintained within the seating arrangement to provide clear access to exits.

Public entrances are to be used for entrance and exit from the building and for all deliveries.

Any announcements or notices to publicize an activity should not be posted or distributed without prior approval of the Library Director.

Attendance at meetings will be limited to the seating capacity of the meeting room. (Maximum capacity 20 people). Seating and / or supplementary furniture are not allowed in corridors outside the meeting room.

A small kitchen facility is available. Cleaning supplies are provided. Other supplies for simple refreshments such as cups, plates, napkins, etc. must be provided by the group or organization.

All trash resulting from the serving of refreshments must be removed by the organization.

Questions not covered in this policy should be referred to _____ at _____.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

The Board of Library Trustees of the Norridgewock Public Library looks upon the establishment of the Friends of the Norridgewock Public Library as a worthwhile community endeavor which will benefit the library.

Complete advance information regarding all Friends of the Library projects shall be provided to the Library Director and the Board of Library Trustees of the _____ Library. The Board of Library Trustees acknowledges that it does not supervise the activities of the Friends of the Library, but the Board reserves the right not to participate in any Friends projects in which the Board does not believe the best interest of the Library is being served.

The Board of Library Trustees acknowledges that the Friends of the Library are an organization separate and apart from the _____ Library, and that the Friends of the Library has its own Board and its own goals and purposes.

Friends of the _____ Library is distinct and separate from the Library, and neither the Friends of the Library as an organization nor any member or participant thereof may assume any liability or take or authorize any act on behalf of the _____ Library.

Because Friends of the _____ Library is an organization comprised solely of volunteers distinct and separate from Library personnel, no Library personnel shall perform any duty or take any act on behalf of the Friends of the Library, except Library staff members may act in an advisory capacity for Friends activities.

Operating expenses of the _____ Library are provided through allocation of tax monies that are audited by an independent auditor. Friends' funds and Library funds shall not be commingled or integrated, except that gifts from Friends may be accepted by the Library. Such gifts shall become solely the funds of the Library but shall be expended for the specific purpose for which the gift or donation has been made by the Friends. In the event the _____ Library becomes the custodian of any Friends funds, those funds shall be kept as separate "funds" for audit and bookkeeping purposes.

Complete advance information regarding all Friends of the _____ Library public relations programs on behalf of the _____ Library shall be provided to the Library Director and the Board of Library Trustees of the _____ Library. The Board of Library Trustees acknowledges that it does not supervise the public relations programs of the Friends of the Library. However, the Board does reserve the right not to participate in any public relations project or program in which the Board does not believe the best interest of the Library is being served. Public relations programs adopted by Friends shall not be part of the budget of or funded by the _____ Library.

VOLUNTEERS/INSURANCE CARRIED

The _____ Library recognizes and appreciates the hard work and unique talents the volunteers of the community offer to the _____ Library throughout the year. The _____ Library also recognizes the risk of injury that can be a part of every activity. For that reason, the board of trustees of the _____ Library carries the necessary insurance coverage to provide insurance to volunteers who are injured while performing a task assigned by the library director or board of trustees as part of a formal program of volunteerism. This coverage is provided to the same level as accidental injury coverage is provided to employees of the library.

VOLUNTEERS/INSURANCE NOT CARRIED

The _____ Library recognizes and appreciates the hard work and unique talents the volunteers of the community offer to the _____ Library throughout the year. All work performed by volunteers is done without compensation and at the risk of the volunteer. The library does not carry insurance which protects the volunteer in the case of accidental injury.

Library Bill of Rights

The American Library Association affirms that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies should guide their services.

- I. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.
- II. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.
- III. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.
- IV. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of free expression and free access to ideas.
- V. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.
- VI. Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable base, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

Adopted June 18, 1948.
Amended February 2, 1961, and January 23, 1980,
inclusion of "age" reaffirmed January 23, 1996,

Freedom to Read Statement

The freedom to read is essential to our democracy. It is continuously under attack. Private groups and public authorities in various parts of the country are working to remove or limit access to reading materials, to censor content in schools, to label “controversial” views, to distribute lists of “objectionable” books or authors, and to purge libraries. These actions apparently rise from a view that our national tradition of free expression is no longer valid; that censorship and suppression are needed to avoid the subversion of politics and the corruption of morals. We, as citizens devoted to reading and as librarians and publishers responsible for disseminating ideas, wish to assert the public interest in the preservation of the freedom to read.

Most attempts at suppression rest on a denial of the fundamental premise of democracy: that the ordinary citizen, by exercising critical judgment, will accept the good and reject the bad. The censors, public and private, assume that they should determine what is good and what is bad for their fellow citizens.

We trust Americans to recognize propaganda and misinformation, and to make their own decisions about what they read and believe. We do not believe they need the help of censors to assist them in this task. We do not believe they are prepared to sacrifice their heritage of a free press in order to be “protected” against what others think may be bad for them. We believe they still favor free enterprise in ideas and expression.

These efforts at suppression are related to a larger pattern of pressures being brought against education, the press, art and images, films, broadcast media, and the Internet. The problem is not only one of actual censorship. The shadow of fear cast by these pressures leads, we suspect, to an even larger voluntary curtailment of expression by those who seek to avoid controversy.

Such pressure toward conformity is perhaps natural to a time of accelerated change. And yet suppression is never more dangerous than in such a time of social tension. Freedom has given the United States the elasticity to endure strain. Freedom keeps open the path of novel and creative solutions, and enables change to come by choice. Every silencing of a heresy, every enforcement of an orthodoxy, diminishes the toughness and resilience of our society and leaves it the less able to deal with controversy and difference.

Now as always in our history, reading is among our greatest freedoms. The freedom to read and write is almost the only means for making generally available ideas or manners of expression that can initially command only a small audience. The written word is the natural medium for the new idea and the untried voice from which come the original contributions to social growth. It is essential to the extended discussion that serious thought requires, and to the accumulation of knowledge and ideas into organized collections.

We believe that free communication is essential to the preservation of a free society and a creative culture. We believe that these pressures toward conformity present the danger of limiting the range and variety of inquiry and expression on which our democracy and our culture depend. We believe that every American community must jealously guard the freedom to publish and to circulate, in order to preserve its own freedom to read. We believe that publishers and librarians have a profound responsibility to give validity to that freedom to read by making it possible for the readers to choose freely from a variety of offerings. The freedom to read is guaranteed by the Constitution. Those with faith in free people will stand firm on these constitutional guarantees of essential rights and will exercise the responsibilities that accompany these rights.

We therefore affirm these propositions:

1. It is in the public interest for publishers and librarians to make available the widest diversity of views and expressions, including those that are unorthodox or unpopular with the majority.

Creative thought is by definition new, and what is new is different. The bearer of every new thought is a rebel until that idea is refined and tested. Totalitarian systems attempt to maintain themselves in power by the ruthless suppression of any concept that challenges the established orthodoxy. The power of a democratic system to adapt to change is vastly strengthened by the freedom of its citizens to choose widely from among conflicting opinions offered freely to them. To stifle every nonconformist idea at birth would mark the end of the democratic process. Furthermore, only through the constant activity of weighing and selecting can the democratic mind attain the strength demanded by times like these. We need to know not only what we believe but why we believe it.

2. Publishers, librarians, and booksellers do not need to endorse every idea or presentation they make available. It would conflict with the public interest for them to establish their own political, moral, or aesthetic views as a standard for determining what should be published or circulated.

Publishers and librarians serve the educational process by helping to make available knowledge and ideas required for the growth of the mind and the increase of learning. They do not foster education by imposing as mentors the patterns of their own thought. The people should have the freedom to read and consider a broader range of ideas than those that may be held by any single librarian or publisher or government or church. It is wrong that what one can read should be confined to what another thinks proper.

3. It is contrary to the public interest for publishers or librarians to bar access to writings on the basis of the personal history or political affiliations of the author.

No art or literature can flourish if it is to be measured by the political views or private lives of its creators. No society of free people can flourish that draws up lists of writers to whom it will not listen, whatever they may have to say.

4. There is no place in our society for efforts to coerce the taste of others, to confine adults to the reading matter deemed suitable for adolescents, or to inhibit the efforts of writers to achieve artistic expression.

To some, much of modern expression is shocking. But is not much of life itself shocking? We cut off literature at the source if we prevent writers from dealing with the stuff of life. Parents and teachers have a responsibility to prepare the young to meet the diversity of experiences in life to which they will be exposed, as they have a responsibility to help them learn to think critically for themselves. These are affirmative responsibilities, not to be discharged simply by preventing them from reading works for which they are not yet prepared. In these matters values differ, and values cannot be legislated; nor can machinery be devised that will suit the demands of one group without limiting the freedom of others.

5. It is not in the public interest to force a reader to accept with any expression the prejudgment of a label characterizing it or its author as subversive or dangerous.

The ideal of labeling presupposes the existence of individuals or groups with wisdom to determine by authority what is good or bad for the citizen. It presupposes that individuals must be directed in making up their minds about the ideas they examine. But Americans do not need others to do their thinking for them.

6. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians, as guardians of the people's freedom to read, to contest encroachments upon that freedom by individuals or groups seeking to impose their own standards or tastes upon the community at large.

It is inevitable in the give and take of the democratic process that the political, the moral, or the aesthetic concepts of an individual or group will occasionally collide with those of another individual or group. In a free society individuals are free to determine for themselves what they wish to read and each group is free to determine what it will recommend to its freely associated members. But no group has the right to take the law into its own hands, and to impose its own concept of politics or morality upon other members of a democratic society. Freedom is no freedom if it is accorded only to the accepted and the inoffensive.

7. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians to give full meaning to the freedom to read by providing books that enrich the quality and diversity of thought and expression. By the exercise of this affirmative responsibility, they can demonstrate that the answer to a “bad” book is a good one; the answer to a “bad” idea is a good one.

The freedom to read is of little consequence when the reader cannot obtain matter fit for that reader’s purpose. What is needed is not only the absence of restraint, but the positive provision of opportunity for the people to read the best that has been thought and said. Books are the major channel by which the intellectual inheritance is handed down, and the principal means of its testing and growth. The defense of the freedom to read requires of all publishers and librarians the utmost of their faculties, and deserves of all citizens the fullest of their support.

We state these propositions neither lightly nor as easy generalizations. We here stake out a lofty claim for the value of the written word. We do so because we believe that it is possessed of enormous variety and usefulness, worthy of cherishing and keeping free. We realize that the application of these propositions may mean the dissemination of ideas and manners of expression that are repugnant to many persons. We do not state these propositions in the comfortable belief that what people read is unimportant. We believe rather that what people read is deeply important; that ideas can be dangerous; but that the suppression of ideas is fatal to a democratic society. Freedom itself is a dangerous way of life, but it is ours.

Adopted June 25, 1953; revised January 28, 1972, January 16, 1991, July 12, 2000, by the ALA Council and the AAP Freedom to Read Committee.

Freedom to View Statement

The FREEDOM TO VIEW, along with the freedom to speak, to hear, and to read, is protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. In a free society, there is no place for censorship of any medium of expression. Therefore, we affirm these principles:

1. It is in the public interest to provide the broadest possible access to films and other audiovisual materials because they have proven to be among the most effective means for the communication of ideas. Liberty of circulation is essential to insure the constitutional guarantee of freedom of expression.
2. It is in the public interest to provide for our audiences, films and other audiovisual materials which represent a diversity of views and expression. Selection of a work does not constitute or imply agreement with or approval of the content.
3. It is our professional responsibility to resist the constraint of labeling or prejudging a film on the basis of the moral, religious, or political beliefs of the producer or film maker or on the basis of controversial content.

It is our professional responsibility to contest vigorously, by all lawful means, every encroachment upon the public's freedom to view.

The Texas Library Association Intellectual Freedom Statement

A.

B. PREAMBLE

The Texas Library Association holds that the freedom to read is a corollary of the constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press. Freedom of choice in selecting materials is a necessary safeguard to the freedom to read, and shall be protected against extra-legal, irresponsible attempts by self-appointed censors to abridge it. The Association believes that citizens shall have the right of free inquiry and the equally important right of forming their own opinions, and that it is of the utmost importance to the continued existence of democracy that freedom of the press in all forms of public communication be defended and preserved. The Texas Library Association subscribes in full to the principles set forth in the LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS of the American Library Association, Freedom to Read Statement, and interpretative statements adopted thereto.

C. AREAS OF CONCERN

2. LEGISLATION. The Texas Library Association is concerned with legislation at the federal, state, local and school district level which tends to strengthen the position of libraries and other media of communication as instruments of knowledge and culture in a free society. The Association is also concerned with monitoring proposed legislation at the federal, state, local and school district level which might restrict, prejudice or otherwise interfere with the selection, acquisition, or other professional activities of libraries, as expressed in the American Library Association's LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS and the Freedom to Read Statement.

The Intellectual Freedom Committee works with the Legislative Committee to watch proposed legislation, at the various levels, which would restrict or interfere with the selection, acquisition, or other professional activities of libraries.

3. INTERFERENCE. The Association is concerned with the proposed or actual restrictions imposed by individuals, voluntary committees, or administrative authority on library materials or on the selection judgment, or on the procedures or practices of librarians.

The Intellectual Freedom Committee attempts to eliminate restrictions which are imposed on the use or selection of library materials or selection judgment or on the procedures or practices of librarians; receives requests for advice and assistance where freedom has been threatened or curtailed; and recommends action to the Executive Board where it appears necessary.

4. MATERIALS SELECTION POLICY. The Texas Library Association believes that every library, in order to strengthen its own selection process, and to provide an objective basis for evaluation of that process, should develop a written official statement of policy for the selection of library materials.

The Intellectual Freedom Committee encourages all libraries to develop a written statement of policy for the selection of library materials which includes an endorsement of the LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS.

5. EDUCATION. The Texas Library Association is concerned with the continuing education of librarians and the general public in understanding and implementing the philosophy inherent in the LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS and the ALA Freedom to Read Statement.

The Intellectual Freedom Committee supports an active education program for librarians, trustees, and the general public.

6. LIAISON WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS. The Texas Library Association, in order to encourage a united front in defending the rights to read, shall cooperate with other organizations concerned with intellectual freedom.

The Intellectual Freedom Committee advises on TLA positions and cooperates with other organizations.

Adopted September 15, 1972 by the TLA Council
Reaffirmed April 7, 1995 by the TLA Council
